

PARTNERSHIP IN ISLAM

Imran Ahsan Khan Nyazee

Advanced Legal Studies Institute

Contents

1	Introduction	1
1.1	The Importance of the Study	1
1.2	The Goals of the Study	7
1.3	Some Difficulties on the Way	8
1.4	Structure of the Study	10
I	The Nature of Partnership in Fiqh and Law	13
2	Definition of Partnership in Fiqh and Law	19
2.1	Definition in Fiqh	21
2.1.1	The literal meaning of sharikah	21
2.1.2	The technical meaning of sharikah	22
2.2	Definition of Partnership in Law	29
2.3	Comparison and Implications	33
3	The Formation of a Sharikah	35
3.1	The Oral Agreement	38
3.2	Writing Down the Contract	40
3.3	Partnership by Act of the Parties	44
4	Types of Partnership	47
4.1	Co-ownership (Sharikat al-Milk)	48
4.1.1	The conditions of co-ownership	49
4.2	Distinction Between Sharikat al-Milk and Sharikat al-'Aqd	51

4.3	Types of Partnership (Sharikat al-‘Aqd) in Fiqh	52
4.3.1	Types of contract partnership according to the majority	53
4.3.2	Types of contract partnership according to the Ḥanafīs	55
4.3.3	Classification preferred for this study	59
4.3.4	Types of partnership in law	62
5	Fundamental Concepts I: The Firm and its Different Notions	65
5.1	The Economist and the Firm	65
5.2	The Accounting Notion of the Firm	67
5.3	The Lawyer’s Notion of the Firm	67
5.4	The Mercantile Notion of the Firm and Islamic Law	69
5.5	The Mercantile Notion of the Firm and Corporate Personality	70
6	Fundamental Concepts II: Contracts Underlying Partnerships	73
6.1	The Effects of Underlying Contracts in a Single Contract of Partnership	74
6.1.1	The contract of amānah (trust)	75
6.1.2	The contract of wakālah (agency)	76
6.1.3	The contract of kafālah (surety)	79
6.1.4	The contract of ijārah (hire)	80
6.2	The Effects of Sharikah in Conjunction with the Underlying Contracts	81
6.3	Two Partnerships in One and the Rules of Istidānah	82
6.4	Contracts Underlying Partnerships and Corporations in Modern Law	85
7	Fundamental Concepts III: The Bases for Entitlement to Profit	87
7.1	Entitlement to Profit (Istihqāq al-Ribh) according to the Ḥanafīs and Ḥanbalīs	88

7.2	Entitlement to Profit and the Mālikī View	91
7.3	Entitlement to Profit and the Shāfi'ī View	93
7.4	Is Land a Basis for Entitlement to Profit?	93
7.5	Bases for Entitlement to Profit in Modern Law	95
8	Fundamental Concepts IV: Ownership of the Capital of the Firm	99
8.1	Ownership, mudārib and borrower	101
9	Fundamental Concepts V: Liability of Partners for Debts	103
9.1	Liability of Partners in Fiqh	104
9.1.1	Liability of partners and requirements of muṭālabah in sharikat al-'inān and mudārabah ?	105
9.1.2	Liability of partners in the Ḥanafī mufāwadah	111
9.1.3	Liability of partners in the 'inān partnership based on kafālah	112
9.2	Liability in Modern Law	113
9.2.1	Liability of partners in law	113
9.2.2	Liability of shareholders in joint stock companies and corporations	115
II	The First Category of Partnerships in Fiqh: Ḥanafī School	121
10	Ḥanafī School: General Conditions of 'Inān	127
10.1	The Meaning of 'Inān and its Legal Validity	128
10.1.1	The definition of 'inān	130
10.1.2	Legal justification of 'inān	133
10.2	The Rukn of 'Inān and its Formation	134
10.2.1	When the ṣighah is restricted by duration— tawqīt	136
10.3	Formation of 'Inān by Conversion of Mufāwadah	136
10.4	The implication of the term 'inān	140
10.5	Stipulating Additional Conditions, Like Kafālah , in 'Inān	141

10.6	The Implications of Including Kafālah in ‘Inān . . .	145
10.7	Types of Sharikat al-‘Inān	148
10.8	Contractual Capacity of Partners	149
10.9	The Minor as a Partner in Fiqh and Law	151
10.9.1	Partnership among family members	154
10.10	The Vitiating and Termination of the Partnership	154
10.10.1	Vitiating (fasād) of the partnership	154
10.10.2	The effects of a fāsīd partnership	155
10.10.3	Termination of the ‘inān partnership	156
11	Ḥanafī School: Special Conditions of ‘Inān	161
11.1	Sharikat al-‘Inān : When the Subject-Matter is Wealth (Māl)	164
11.1.1	The concept of māl with respect to the sharikah	165
11.1.2	The capital contributed must be present	173
11.1.3	Partnership concluded with currency is effective after transactions in the currency	174
11.2	Sharing of Profit and Loss in Sharikat al-‘Inān Based on Māl	177
11.2.1	Conditions pertaining to profit sharing must be expressly stipulated	177
11.2.2	Conditions of profit that are permissible	178
11.2.3	The stipulation of loss	180
11.3	Stipulation of Work in ‘Inān Based Upon Wealth	180
11.4	Powers of the Partners in a Sharikat al-‘Inān Based Upon Wealth	181
11.5	Liability of ‘Inān Partners for Debts	185
11.5.1	Liability when the ‘inān is based upon wakālah as well as kafālah	188
11.5.2	Conclusion about liability of partners	188
11.6	Sharikat al-‘Inān When the Subject-matter is Work	189
11.6.1	Work for which this partnership is not permitted	190

11.6.2	Partnership is valid in the benefits of property and implements	191
11.6.3	Similarity of profession is not necessary .	193
11.6.4	Conditions for acceptance and performance of work	194
11.6.5	Conditions for sharing profit and loss . .	196
11.6.6	Legal capacity, relatives as partners, and duration of partnership	198
11.6.7	Duration of the partnership	199
11.7	Sharikat al-'Inān with Credit-Worthiness (Wajāhah)	199
11.7.1	Conditions for sharing profit and loss . .	200
11.7.2	Liability of partners in this partnership .	202
12	Ḥanafī School: The Mufāwāḍah Partnership	203
12.1	The Meaning of Mufāwāḍah and its Legal Justification	205
12.1.1	The meaning of mufāwāḍah	205
12.1.2	Legal justification	206
12.2	The Implication of the Absolute Term Mufāwāḍah	208
12.2.1	Does the mufāwāḍah have to be for trade in general?	209
12.2.2	Expanded types of mufāwāḍah	210
12.3	Contractual Capacity of Partners	211
12.4	The Conditions of Mufāwāḍah according to Subject-matter	213
12.4.1	Stipulations When the Subject-matter is Wealth	213
12.4.2	Stipulations when the subject-matter of mufāwāḍah is labour	218
12.4.3	Stipulations when the subject-matter of mufāwāḍah is credit-worthiness	221
12.5	The Termination of the Mufāwāḍah Partnership	222
12.6	The Importance of Mufāwāḍah and its Utility . .	223

III	The First Category of Partnerships in Fiqh: Majority Schools	225
13	Mālikī School: First Category of Partnerships	233
13.1	Sharikat al-‘Inān in the Mālikī School	235
13.1.1	The meaning of ‘ inān according to the Mālikīs	236
13.1.2	The implication of the absolute term ‘ inān	237
13.1.3	Profits are Proportional to Capital	239
13.2	The Mālikī Mufāwadah	241
13.2.1	The meaning of mufāwadah according to the Mālikīs	241
13.2.2	The implication of the mufāwadah con- tract	242
13.3	Comparison Between the Mālikī Mufāwadah and the Ḥanafī ‘ Inān	251
13.4	Mālikī School: Sharikat al-A‘māl and Sharikat al-Wujūh	253
13.4.1	Sharikat al-a‘māl (or abdān) according to the Mālikīs	254
13.5	Sharikat al-Wujūh and Sharikat al-Dhimam	258
14	Shāfi‘ī School: First Category of Partnerships	261
14.1	The Concept of ‘ Inān According to the Shāfi‘īs	262
14.1.1	The meaning of ‘ inān	262
14.1.2	The contract of sharikat al-‘inān	265
14.1.3	Formation of the partnership and stip- ulation for sharing profits	266
14.1.4	The powers of a partner	268
14.2	Views of the Shāfi‘īs about the Illegality of Other Forms of Partnerhsip	270
14.2.1	The Rejection of the mufāwadah	271
14.2.2	Al-Shāfi‘īs views about the illegality of the sharikat al-abdān	274
14.2.3	The illegality of sharikat al-wujūh	275

15	Ḥanbalī School: First Category of Partnerhsips	277
15.1	The ‘Inān Partnership according to the Ḥanbalīs	280
15.1.1	The meaning of ‘inān according to the Ḥanbalīs	280
15.1.2	The implication of the absolute term ‘inān and powers of partners	283
15.1.3	Sale and purchase on credit and liability of partners	284
15.2	The Ḥanbalī Sharikat al-Wujūh	288
15.3	Sharikat al-Abdān according to the Ḥanbalīs	292
15.3.1	Types of sharikat al-abdān	292
15.3.2	The use of implements and property	294
15.3.3	Vitiation of sharikat al-abdān	294
15.4	The Contract of Mufāwāḍah according to the Ḥanbalīs	295
16	Comparison Between the Schools	297
16.1	The Forms of Partnership Approved by the Schools	299
16.1.1	Classification according to the Ḥanafī school	300
16.1.2	Classification according to the Shāfi‘ī school	302
16.1.3	Classification according to the Mālikī school	302
IV	The Second Category of Partnerships in Fiqh	307
17	Muḍārabah or Qirāḍ	313
17.1	Definition of Muḍārabah and its Legal Validity	315
17.1.1	Definition of muḍārabah	315
17.1.2	Legal justification of muḍārabah	319
17.1.3	The rukṅ (element) of the contract of muḍārabah	320

17.2	Types of Muḍārabah and the Implications of its Unqualified Contract	323
17.2.1	The implications of the contract of muḍ-ārabah	323
17.2.2	Types of muḍārabah	331
17.3	The Conditions of Muḍārabah	333
17.3.1	Parties to the contract	333
17.3.2	The capital invested	334
17.3.3	The conditions of profit	335
17.3.4	The authority of the muḍārib or the conditions of taṣarruf	336
17.3.5	The Restricted Muḍārabah	342
17.4	Liability of the Partners for the Debts of the Muḍārabah	342
17.4.1	Liability of the investor and the worker for the debts of the muḍārabah before istidānah and before commencement of transactions	343
17.4.2	Liability after purchase, but before wilāyat al-istidānah	344
17.4.3	When the muḍārib purchases on credit beyond the capital limit without lawful authority	349
17.4.4	Liability of the rabb al-māl and the muḍārib for debts after lawful istidānah	349
17.4.5	No liability for the rabb al-māl in qard	351
17.5	Termination of the Muḍārabah	353
17.6	Shortcomings of the Muḍārabah Contract	354
18	Muzāra'ah and Musāqāh	357
18.1	Muzāra'ah (Share-cropping)	359
18.1.1	The meaning of muzāra'ah	359
18.1.2	Legal justification of muzāra'ah	360
18.1.3	Rukn and Types	366
18.1.4	Conditions of Muzāra'ah	367
18.1.5	The aḥkām (legal effects) of muzāra'ah	369

18.1.6	Rescission of the muzāra'ah	370
18.2	Musāqāh or Mu'āmalah	370
18.2.1	The meaning of musāqāh	371
18.2.2	Legal justification of musāqāh	371
18.2.3	The rukn (element) of musāqāh	372
18.2.4	The conditions of musāqāh	372
18.2.5	The aḥkām (legal effects) of the contract	375
18.2.6	Rescission of the contract	376

V Islamic Form of Partnerships for the Modern World 377

19	Basic Issues in Corporate Law and Finance for Islamic Law	383
19.1	Corporation Specific Issues	385
19.1.1	The Concept of the Modern Corporation	386
19.1.2	The Model of the Islamic Corporation	386
19.1.3	Corporate Governance and Control	387
19.2	Partnership Specific Issues	387
19.3	Common Issues	388
19.4	Issues Dealt With in This Study	389
20	Partnerships Without Legal Personality: Existing Law	391
21	Partnerships With Legal Personality: New Proposals	407
21.1	Corporate Personality and Islamic Law	409
21.2	The Nature of the Limited Partnership	411
21.3	Designing the Islamic Limited Partnership	413
21.3.1	The guiding principles for the new Islamic limited partnership	413
21.3.2	The foundations on which the limited partnership is erected	414
21.4	An Identical Provision in the Company Law	417
22	Select Bibliography	421

23	Glossary
----	----------

427
