2.1 The Book Focuses on the Appointment of the Qāḍī , Procedure, Judgements and Removal	17
2.2 The Appointment of a Qāḍī is an Obligation	18
2.3 Qaḍā' is the Rendering of Judgement on the Basis of Justice in Accordance with the Commandments of Allāh	19
2.4 The Overall Ruler (Imām A'ẓam) Delegates Judicial Authority to the Qāḍī	20
3 Person Eligible for Appointment as a Qāḍī	21
3.1 The Basic Conditions for Eligibility are Sanity, Majority, Islam, Freedom, Sight, Speech and Non-Conviction for Qadhf	21
3.2 The Judicial Office is the Highest Form of Authority (Wilāyah)	22
3.3 A Woman has Legal Capacity for Appointment, But Cannot Hear Hudūd and Qiṣāṣ Cases	22
3.4 Attaining the Status of a Mujtahid is Neither a Condition for the Appointment of the Qāḍī Nor for the Overall Ruler (Imām A'ẓam)	23
3.5 It is Not Permitted to Appoint a Person Who is Ignorant of the Legal Rules (Aḥkām)	23
3.6 ' Adālah (Moral Probity) is Not a Condition for Appointment to the Judicial Office	24
3.7 Not Seeking Office is Not a Condition for Appointment to the Judicial Office	25
3.8 Conditions of Superior Merit May be Observed for Ensuring Complete Justice	26
3.9 Conditions Stated for the Qāḍī Also Apply to the Appointment of the Arbitrator	26

4	Person For Whom Acceptance of the Office is Deemed an Obligation	29
4.1	If There are Several Qualified Persons the Person Offered the Office May or May Not Accept	29
4.2	Performing the Judicial Function is one of the Best forms of Worship (‘Ibādah)	30
4.3	If There is Only One Qualified Person in the Land, Acceptance is Binding on Him	31
5	Conditions for Adjudication	33
5.1	If a Person is Not Qualified to be a Qāḍī His Judgement is Not Valid	33
5.2	The Judgement Must be Based, Directly or Indirectly, on the Sources of Islamic Law	34
5.3	In Cases of Disagreement Where There is no Precedent From the Ancestors, a Judgement That Opposes the Definitive Evidences or Ignores the Views of All the Jurists is Void	35
5.4	In Cases for Which There is no Text or Ijmā‘ , the Qāḍī Must Follow His Ijtihād in Case He is a Mujtahid	35
5.5	According to Some, the Mujtahid Qāḍī May Give Up His Opinion in Favour of the Opinion of Another Jurist Who Has Greater Legal Acumen	36
5.6	The Taqīd of the Companions (God be Pleased With Them) or Considering the Opinion of a Companion as a Source of Law is Based Upon This Rule . . .	37
5.7	The Qāḍī is Not to Hasten His Decision and is to Display Courage and Confidence in His Ijtihād	38
5.8	Where the Qāḍī is Not Qualified to Undertake Ijtihād , He is to Memorise All the Points of Agreement and Disagreement in the School, Otherwise He is to Seek a Fatwā	39
5.9	Where the Qāḍī , Who is Not a Mujtahid , Decides According to the View of Another School, And is Aware of This, His Judgement is Not to be Executed . .	39
5.10	Where the Qāḍī , Who is Mujtahid , Decides According to the View of Another School, His Judgement is Valid by Consensus	40
5.11	If Two Different Decisions Based on Ijtihād Are Given by the Same Qāḍī in Two Similar Cases, the First Decision is Not Invalidated	41
5.12	Where an Issue is Subject to Ijtihād , the Opinion of the Qāḍī is Binding on the Parties, Even When They Are Mujtahids in Their Own Right and Differ With the Qāḍī	44
5.13	Where the Judgement of the Qāḍī Goes Against a Prior Fatwā , the Judgement of the Qāḍī is Adopted	46
5.14	A Judgement Based on Testimony, Refusal to Take Oath, or Acknowledgement is Binding on the Parties	46
5.15	A Judgement Based on Prior Personal Knowledge of the Qāḍī is Valid Against the Parties, Except in Cases of Hudūd	47
5.16	A Judgement Based on the Epistle of Another Qāḍī is Valid With Certain Conditions	51

5.17	A Condition for Adjudication is That the Judgement be Rendered for the Sake of Allāh, the Praiseworthy and the Exalted	56
5.18	The Judgement of a Qāḍī Who Has Accepted a Bribe For it is not Valid Even When the Judgement is Based Upon Justice	56
5.19	The Judgement of the Qāḍī is Valid For a Person if He Can Testify for the Qāḍī, is Present in Court and Has Lodged a Complaint	56
5.20	The Qāḍī Cannot Render Judgement Against a Person Who is Absent, and Judgements Ex Parte Are Not Valid	57
6	Judicial Conduct and Procedure	59
6.1	The Letter of ‘Umar (God be Pleased With Him) Also Called the Directive on Siyāsah (Administration of Justice), Written to Abū Mūsā al-Ash‘arī, is the Basis for Recommended Judicial Conduct and Procedure	59
6.2	The Qāḍī Should Understand Fully the Statements of the Parties	61
6.3	The Qāḍī Should Not be in a State of Tension While Hearing Cases	62
6.4	The Qāḍī Should Not be Overwhelmed by Work While Hearing Cases	62

6.6	The Qāḍī Should Not Hear Cases in a State of Hunger or Thirst	63
6.7	The Qāḍī Should Not Hear the Parties While He is Walking or Travelling	63
6.8	The Parties Must Both be in Front of the Qāḍī And Not One on the Left and the Other on the Right	64
6.9	The Qāḍī Should Give Equal Attention and Treatment to Both Parties	64
6.10	The Qāḍī Should Not Accept a Gift Unless it is Free of All Suspicion	65
6.11	The Qāḍī Should Not Attend Private Feasts Unless His Attendance is Free of All Suspicion	66
6.12	The Qāḍī Should Not Help One of the Parties	66
6.13	The Qāḍī Should Not Provide Help to the Witnesses	67
6.14	The Qāḍī Should Not Make Fun of the Witnesses	67
6.15	The Qāḍī May Attend Funerals For That is the Right of the Deceased Over Muslims	68
6.16	The Qāḍī May Visit the Sick	68
6.17	The Qāḍī is to Greet Both Parties With the Salutation (Salām) When They Enter the Court and Before He is Seated	68
6.18	The Qāḍī is Not to Greet the Parties Nor Are They to Greet Him Once He is Seated	69
6.19	Likewise the Teacher, Once He is Seated No One is to Make the Salutation	69
6.20	The Ruler is to Respond to the Salutation Even When Seated	70
6.21	The Qāḍī May Enquire About the Probity of Witnesses in All Cases But in Hudūd and Qiṣāṣ Cases it is Obligatory	70
6.22	The Conditions of Probity Pertain to Probity Itself and to the Mode of its Ascertainment	71

6.23	The ‘Adālah of a Minor, Insane Person and an Unbeliever Does Not Need to be Established	71
6.24	The Muzakkī Must Himself Possess Moral Probity	72
6.25	For Abū Ḥanīfah the Number of Muzakkīs is Not a Condition for Establishing ‘Adālah	72
6.26	Likewise Number is Not a Condition for Interpreters and Bearers of Proclamations	73
6.27	For Abū Ḥanīfah Freedom, Sight and Non-Conviction in Qadhf is Not a Condition for the Muzakkī	73
6.28	Being a Male is Not a Condition for the Muzakkī	73
6.29	‘Adālah May be Established Upon Information From Close Relatives	74
6.30	The Muzakkī Should Not be a Person Against Whom Testimony is Given	74
6.31	If the Defendant Attests to the Probity of a Witness Another Muzakkī is Needed to Support Such Attestation	75
6.32	The Muzakkī Should Make a Clear Statement About ‘Adālah	75
6.33	The Muzakkī Should Make the Secret Enquiry First	76
6.34	If Two Muzakkīs Differ the Matter is Referred to Other Persons	77
6.35	A Group of Jurists May Sit in Court to Assist the Qāḍī	77
6.36	The Qāḍī Should Have a Court Manager Who is to Maintain Order in Court	79
6.37	The Qāḍī Should Have Attendants Who Conduct Parties and Perform Other Tasks	79
6.38	The Qāḍī Should Have Interpreters For Those Who Do Not Understand the Language of the Court	80
6.39	The Qāḍī Should Have A Reader Qualified in Fiqh to Assist Him	81
6.40	The Reader is to Sit Where the Qāḍī Can See Him Write	81
6.41	The Reader is to Record the Complaint First and Then Leave Blank Spaces for the Qāḍī to Fill	82
6.42	At the End, the Reader is to Wrap the File, Place the Court Seal on it, Write the Case title, and Place it in a Cabinet	82
6.43	The Qāḍī is to Write the Names of the Witnesses on a Card and Send it to the Mu‘addil Under Confidential Cover	83
